Ed Feulner

FOUNDER AND FORMER PRESIDENT,
THE HERITAGE FOUNDATION

Ed Feulner is the founder and former president of The Heritage Foundation, one of the world's most influential think tanks. He served from 1977 to 2013 and again from 2017 to 2018, transforming a small policy shop into an American powerhouse of conservative ideas.

Feulner was the architect of the Mandate for Leadership policy agenda that was deeply instrumental to the success of President Ronald Reagan's administration. It is estimated that 60% of the 2,000 proposals in the foundation's Mandate for Leadership were implemented or initiated by the end of Reagan's first year in office.

Feulner has been listed as one of the 100 most influential conservatives in America (the Daily Telegraph), the 6th most powerful conservative in Washington (Karl Rove) and one of "the 100 Americans the Left hates most" (Townhall magazine). He is a Bradley Prize winner and the author of nine books.

Join the Badger Institute and Ed Feulner as he casts a vision for the Institute's Mandate for Madison, our policy action plan for Wisconsin citizens and leaders toward a freer and more prosperous future.
